1. I am hard up, you don't know me, For my
 2. Some tramps they beg from door to door, And they
 3. 'Twas at an hum - ble cot I call'd, And I

mf

clothes are tatter'd and torn;..... My pa - rents died when ask for char - i - ty;..... They say they've chil - dren rapp'd at the back door;..... A man ask'd me, what I was young, I'm for - sak - en, dia - lik'd and for - lorn..... I at home, And they can't sup - port their fam - i - ly;..... But would I have? I told him I was hun - gry and poor..... Said travell'd this coun - try thro' and thro', On the road and place a nick - le in their hand, To some grog - shop he, come in and take a seat; And he gave me on the rail;..... My limbs are get - ting stiff and they will run;..... A poor man's mon - ey they will bread and tea..... He was a son of E - rin's cold, For the want of a warm meal..... take, And they spend it all for rum.....

Isle, Toil - ing for his fam - i - ly.....

They say, why don't you go to work? When they know there's Now that's the kind that want no work, For they're weak and I shook the hand, so rough and tough. And the tears roll'd none to be had;..... They slam the door in sick, is their plea;..... When they get bread in they'll fast down my face;..... May heav'n pro - tect his front of your face, If you ask them for a bite of bread..... throw it a - way, From a work - ing man's poor fam - i - ly..... good fam - i - ly, For you're wel - come al - ways at his place.....
